London, Nov. 19.

Informal skirmishing in connection with the Irish situation is going on on all three sides here despite the fact that Sir James Craig, Premier of Ulster, is ill with a touch of influenza and Mr. Lloyd George is in Bourne-mouth, where his wife is ill and where he will remain until Tuesday.

The line that those "feckers" are taking is to discover some course whereby Ulster may retain her own Parliament, with certain exclusive rights over taxation and customs within the Ulster frontier, while at the same time acknowledging Dublin as the capital of Ireland. What is being attempted is to work out the same sort of a relationship between Ulster and the rest of Ireland as has already been worked out for the relation of Ireland to the rest of the empire.

Government officials express hope that these efforts will succeed and characterize the situation as being even more hopeful than when Parliament rose. But they admit it will take a long time to work out a formula, and, unlike the Sinn Fein negotiations, the success of this depends on the details.

Value in Week End Respite.
The week end respite is considered valuable in enabling all the parties to realize the general will for peace.

LONDON, Nov. 19 (Associated Press).—A conference at an early date between Sir James Craig, Ulster Premier, and Prime Minister Lloyd George on the subject of the Irish peace negotiations is looked for in official circles. It is expected that Sir James will visit Mr. Lloyd George at Bourne-mouth over this week end or early next week. The conference will not be one binding on either party, but it will give an opportunity for an exchange of views.

Sir Hamer Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, and the Irish Office in London disclaimed knowledge to-day of the alleged secret bircular mentioned in Dublin despatches last night as having been issued from the divisional commission of the Royal Irish Constabulary at Belfast, saying the Government was considering the desirability of forming the unauthorized loyalist defence forces into regular military units to be called out only in a grave emergency.

Ulster will have control of its own police after November 22, but it is pointed out that the circular mentions the formation of military units. This is regarded with apprehension in Government circles, which fear clashes between the Ulster government, exercising its new powers, and the Sinn Feiners resisting such exercise of powers. Some officials consider a conflict of this kind might assume the magnitude of civil warfare and compel the intervention of the Imperial Government.

Barrie Quits Job in Ireland.

Hugh T. Barrie, head of the Department of Agriculture and Technical Education in Ireland, has sent his formal resignation to the Prime Minister. This step was taken on the ground that he disapproves of the Government's Irish policy.

[Reports of the resignation of Mr. Barrie were circulated in Belfast on Thursday, but it was explained that although he had not actually resigned he had written to Sir Hamer Greenwood intimating that he could not remain a member of the Government if Ulster's position were in any degree weakened by the Government's latest proposals to Ulster.]

BELFAST, Nov. 19 (Associated Press).—Both houses of the Ulster Parliament have been called by their respective Speakers to meet November 29. When Parliament adjourned October 4 until December 19 it was announced by Sir James Craig that arrangements had been made to summon it to meet at an earlier date in case of emergency.

In addition to receiving the report of the Ulster Cabinet negotiations the Parliament will deal with the transfer of various governmental services from the Imperial Parliament to the North Ireland legislative body.

CORK, Nov. 19.—The last of the interned Irish republican sympathizers were moved from Spike Island last night. In a bunch of 400, they were taken by train, guarded by 200 troops, to the former convict settlement of Mayborough. One insistent complaint the Sinn Fein officials had made of Spike Island was that it was unsanitary.

MRS. MAIER'S SLAYER NO STRANGER, IS BELIEF

Aged Recluse Admitted Murderer While in Night Clothes.

Elvin N. Edwards, Assistant District Attorney of Nassau County, and the police of Mineola, said today that the person who murdered Mrs. Elizabeth Maier, eighty-two years old, in her home near Hicksville, Friday, was known intimately by her and that robbery was the motive of the slaying. The fact that Mrs. Maier was dressed in a nightgown when found was cited in support of the theory that she knew the murderer. Friends have stated she never admitted into her house any person she did not know. The nightgown indicates to the authorities that the murderer was an early caller and that Mrs. Maier apparently had been awakened to admit the slayer. A purse that she had sewed to underclothing had been ripped open.

Mr. Edwards said finger prints found on crockery in the Maier home and information turned over to him by a woman, whose identity he refused to reveal, may open the way for an early solution of the crime. The autopsy showed Mrs. Maier was hit over the head before she was choked to death. Joseph Kaufman, the pedlar arrested Friday night, was released when it was found his fingerprints did not tally with those found on the crockery.

MRS. CHEW CHARGED WITH GRAND LARCENY

Indicted in Theft From Military Prisoner.

Mrs. Marjorie Blanche Chew, wife of Beverly Grayson Chew, former army Captain, appeared before Judge Alfred J. Talbot in chambers yesterday and gave bonds for her appearance to-morrow, when she will be arraigned in General Sessions under an indictment charging grand larceny. Mrs. Chew, whose husband was recently convicted by a general court-martial at Governors Island of issuing worthless checks and other charges, was indicted with Jules Larvett, a theatrical producer, in connection with the alleged theft of two certificates of deposit from Lieut. Harold L. Turner while Turner was a military prisoner at Fort Jay.

Mrs. Chew told reporters she would plead not guilty. Larvett was arraigned a week ago before Judge McIntyre in General Sessions. He pleaded not guilty and was held in high bail.

NEW YORK RAISES HALF RED CROSS QUOTA

School Children Big Factor in Getting $250,000.

New York has raised one-half of the $500,000 sought in the 1922 American Red Cross roll call, and the drive will end next Thursday.

In making that announcement Lieutenant Colonel Charles W. Whittlesey, chairman of the campaign here, said last night that the school children had responded exceptionally well. Fifteen thousand of them have taken membership, the pupils of twelve schools making out their subscriptions and sending them in without having received a personal appeal.

"With but five days to go," said Lieutenant Colonel Whittlesey, "we must come to the adults of the city and ask them to respond as generously as the children."

INDEPENDENTS PLAN TO OUST TAMMANY

Look Four Years Ahead for Winning Fight.

Various independents in politics are beginning to send out feelers in regard to the formation of permanent organizations designed to oust Tammany Hall from control of the municipal government four years hence.

Joseph M. Price, who organized what he called a coalition committee and who took part in the recent disastrous campaign, wants to continue his movement in permanent form. He has written to a number of persons interested in municipal politics, seeking their views. He proposes having a luncheon or dinner, at which the coalition committee could be moulded into a permanent body.

John Tyrone Kelly, independent Democrat, who also was connected with the Murray Hill headquarters, is seeking encouragement for the establishment of a citizens' municipal party. This suggestion was made early in the year by Gen. E. C. O'Brien, who was Dock Com-missioner under Mayor Strong. His idea is that none of the national political parties are fitted to cope with purely municipal problems.

POLICEMAN SAVES BOY CHOKING ON APPLE

Stands Lad on Head and Core Is Dislodged.

First aid treatment rendered by Patrolman Mathew S. Quinn of the Glendale station yesterday afternoon saved the life of Roy Noble, 8, of 371 Myrtle avenue, Ridgewood. The boy and a companion were eating apples when a core lodged in Roy's throat. His companion summoned Quinn.

The boy was slowly choking to death when the patrolman stood him on his head, beat his back and dislodged the core.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH CELEBRATES TO-DAY

Anniversary of Consecration to Be Observed.

Thirty-six years ago St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church in Barclay street was consecrated and the anniversary will be observed with a solemn high mass this morning, at which the rector, the Right Rev.

Mgr. James H. McGeen, will officiate. He will be assisted by the other priests of the parish. The sermon will be preached by an old St. Peter's boy, the Rev. Alexis Cunneen, now of the Passionist Fathers. After the mass Mgr. McGeen will ascend the pulpit and welcome back former parishioners of the old church now living in other places. The annual collection for the support of the parish will be taken up.

Mr. McGeen, who has been a priest for more than fifty years, is one of the best known of the clergy in New York. He has freed St. Peter's from all standing debt, has built a rectory and school and improved the church building in every possible way.

JUSTICE OF PEACE ROBBED.

Burglar Gets Gold Watch and $40 in Jersey Home.

Mrs. Mary Dineen, wife of a Justice of the Peace, David A. Dineen, awoke at 5 o'clock yesterday morning and saw a strange man in her bedroom on the third floor at 709 Jersey avenue, Jersey City. She screamed and awoke her husband, but the burglar escaped through a window to a fire escape.

Dineen's gold watch and $40 were stolen.

CITY COLLEGE GAINS 70 P. C. IN 5 YEARS

Total Registration This Year More Than 12,000.

Final statistics for the present term of the College of the City of New York show a registration in the regular day session of 2,107, as against 1,356 in the fall term of 1920. This figure does not include the 375 disabled soldiers to whom the college is giving instructions under the Federal Board for Vocational Education. The evening session, which offers courses not only at the main buildings of the college, on Washington Heights, but at the Commerce Building, on Twenty-third street, in the Municipal Building and in Brooklyn, registers not less than 6,636 students, a very considerable gain over last year. Finally, the extension courses, given to teachers in the city school system, to librarians and to social workers, have a registration of 3,659.

The total registration thus amounts to 12,492, ranking the City College among the largest institutions in the United States.

BIRTH CONTROL INQUIRY IS SET FOR TUESDAY

Enright Asks Mrs. Sanger's Lawyer to Appear.

Police Commissioner Richard E. Enright will begin an investigation Tuesday into the stopping last Sunday night of the mass meeting of the first American birth control conference by the police in Town Hall. Robert McC. Marsa, counsel for Mrs. Margaret Sanger, has been invited by Commissioner Enright to present evidence that the police acted illegally in interrupting the gathering.

Capt. Thomas Donohoe of the Forty-seventh street station, who ordered Mrs. Sanger's arrest before the meeting started, will be called as a witness. The investigation will be held in the office of Chief Inspector William J. Lahay.

Dr. Nora A. Lowery of 1264 Lexington avenue, who was arrested Friday night outside the Park Theatre, where the public birth control meeting finally was held without police interruption, received a suspended sentence yesterday when arraigned before Magistrate Max S. Levine in the West Side Court. Patrolman Philip Ginty testified Dr. Lowery refused to move when ordered.
